

1. General

We are Tested Works Ltd. We are located in the UK and develop AI-powered solutions for restaurants. We value your privacy and digital safety that's why we are only collecting minimum information required to communicate with you efficiently. In this privacy policy we are explaining what information we gather, how we keep it and how we are using it.

2. Anonymous data collection services

When someone visits www.testedworks.com we use a third party service, Google Analytics, to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site. This information is only processed in a way which does not identify anyone. We do not make, and do not allow Google to make, any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting our website.

We collect your email address as a part of our newsletter subscription service using third-party service provider Mailchimp to deliver the newsletters. We gather statistics around email opening and clicks using industry standard technologies to help us monitor and improve our e-newsletter. For more information, please see MailChimp's privacy notice. You can unsubscribe to general mailings at any time by clicking the unsubscribe link at the bottom of any of our emails or by emailing our data protection miks@testedworks.com

3. Contact forms and personal information we are keeping

When you fill contact form on www.testedworks.com we collect and store your name and email address to keep the communication as fast and smooth as possible.

We are not giving personal details provided by the website visitors to any third parties, keeping it safe and secure within Tested Works servers. We will only use this information to respond to your requests made by using the contact form.

You are entitled to view, amend, or delete the personal information that we hold. Email your request to our data protection office Miks Vasiljevs at miks@testedworks.com

Once there are changes made to Tested Works privacy policy you will be immediately notified about the changes. Current version of privacy policy is dated 16.09.18.
